

NSC Vito RR2Y

NSC Vito RR2Y consistently shows very good early-season vigor, often emerging a day or two faster than other varieties of the same maturity. Due to its taller stature, this line has very high pod set to make harvest much easier and quicker. This is an ideal variety for growers who have rolling land and or rocks that prevent cutting at ground level.

Key Strengths

- Early maturing - rated at 2350 CHUs
- Very high pod set
- Recommended for growers with rolling or rocky land
